

Our Community of Interest

The LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing (SON) collaborates with key stakeholders who have an interest not only in our mission, goals, and expected outcomes but also in our success. This Community of Interest includes both internal and external stakeholders who represent different backgrounds, races, ethnicities, genders, values, and perspectives. The School of Nursing considers feedback from these stakeholders to inform decisions that support its Strategic Priorities and its programs of study.

The SON's Communities of Interest include, but are not limited to, these stakeholders ...

Internal Community of Interest

- Current students
- Faculty
