

Student Honor Statement

As a student of the LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing, I am committed to developing and maintaining an environment of high integrity and professional conduct. In order to achieve this, I agree and support the Core Values of the LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing, SON C-PRIDE, which include stewardship, organizational leadership, nursing innovation, caring, professionalism, respect, integrity, diversity, excellence, and the National Student Nurses' Association Code of Professional Conduct.

I will maintain the highest standard of personal and professional conduct in order to actively promote and encourage the highest level of ethics within nursing education and the profession of nursing.

I have the expectation that the faculty and the student body of the LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing will uphold these standards in all activities, both on the campus and in the community.
