LSU–LCMC Health Scholars Program

Applications open May 1

Have ya heard? We've launched an LSU–LCMC Health Scholars Program for LSU Health New Orleans School of Nursing Baccalaureate students. As part of a larger commitment LCMC Health made to LSU, the scholars program is providing tuition and fees assistance throughout a student's enrollment. The application deadline is July 1.

Program criteria

- Traditional BSN and CARE students who have successfully completed all coursework for at least one semester
- Minimum 2.0 term GPA is met each semester
